REIMAGINING INDIAN RETAIL BANKING: THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 AND WAY FORWARD

JUNE 2020

CHECK FULL REPORT HERE

The financial institutions worldwide have been constantly evolving their businesses due to regulatory and competitive pressures, stressed interest rate regime and changing customer expectations. The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic further poses a serious challenge for them. Financial institutions are finding it difficult to manage their daily operations while ensuring that their services are not disrupted and there is no decline in their market share. While think tanks of financial institutions are occupied with managing the crisis in the short term, their strategic focus would be on preparing for the future. PwC, in its latest release- Reimagining Indian Retail Banking: The Impact of COVID-19 and Way Forward chalks an action plan to enable retail banking get back on its feet.

Corporate

Separate must-have costs from nice-to-have costs.

Halt the near take-off of projects that have a low impact on revenue or productivity.

Identify opportunities to reduce real estate expenses.
