The Global Skills Summit (GSS) has been a pioneer event in positioning India on the international skills map. Through its previous editions we have discussed the following themes Skills and knowledge, Emerging Skill - India 2020, Quality Paradigms in Vocational Training: Making India Globally Competitive, much of which has translated in to policy level action and enhanced focus on the subject. The previous edition of GSS had over 600 participants, 56 speakers, 8 countries represented and 23 Exhibitors discussing the plan for “Vocational Education & Training: Developing Strategic and Implementation Framework”.

FICCI’s Global Skills Summit has not only become a brand in positioning India on the world skills map, but a unique platform where best of minds interact to converge, aggregate and implement the skills development story.

ABOUT FICCI

Established in 1927, FICCI is the largest and oldest apex business organization in India. Its history is closely interwoven with India's struggle for independence and its subsequent emergence as one of the most rapidly growing economies globally. FICCI plays a leading role in policy debates that are at the forefront of social, economic and political change.

Through its 400 professionals, FICCI is active in 52 sectors of the economy. FICCI's stand on policy issues is sought out by think tanks, governments and academia. Its publications are widely read for their in-depth research and policy prescriptions. FICCI has joint business councils with 79 countries around the world. A non-government, not-for-profit organization, FICCI is the voice of India's business and industry. FICCI has direct membership from the private as well as public sectors, including SMEs and MNCs, and an indirect membership of over 83,000 companies from regional chambers of commerce.

ABOUT FICCI SKILL DEVELOPMENT FORUM

FICCI recognizes that Skills Development is an important imperative for achieving India's ambitious growth targets. It is committed to working with the stakeholders, especially the industry, government and academia to create sustainable and scalable skills propositions which will benefit the youth of the country from all sections of society. With this in mind, FICCI through its Skills Development activities is pursuing the following vision:

FICCI Vision on Skills Development:

- ❖ FICCI acts as a 'skills development aggregator' to complement Government of India's ambition of training 500 million people by 2022.
- ❖ FICCI offers support and facilitation services through Policy Advocacy, Industry Intervention and International Collaboration so that the youth can acquire skills to meaningfully participate in and contribute to the economy

The FICCI Skills Development Forum (SDF) was launched in 2008 to supplement the government initiatives with industry interventions. The forum has since discussed and critically examined the skill development policies in the country.
