

2nd National Seminar on Standards in Technical Textiles Role of Standardization in Health, Safety and Environment

25 February 2014 - Mayfair Banquets, Worli, Mumbai

Inauguration by

Mrs Zohra Chatterjee
Secretary
Ministry of Textiles

Registration Fee
Rs 2000/-
per delegate

Targeted Institutional Buyers

- Army
- ICAR
- Central Government Health Scheme
- Indian Road Congress
- National Highway Authority of India
- Navy
- Hospitals
- Directorate of Maharashtra Fire Services
- Construction Companies

Tentative Programme

9:30 -10:00 am	Registration
10: 00-10:45 am	Inaugural Session
10:50 am -1: 15 pm	Technical Session – I Standards on Technical Textiles for Safety & Security. The session would cover Standards on Fire retardant Textiles for Public Places, Standards on Technical Textiles for Work Place Safety, User Perspective (Army and Navy) and BIS would apprise about the status of Standards on Protective Textiles.
1:15-2:00 hrs	Lunch
2:00- 3:30 hrs	Technical Session – II Standards on Technical Textiles for Health & Hygiene. The session would cover Standards on Medical Textiles for Health & Hygiene in Hospitals, Medical Textiles for Health & Hygiene of Consumers, User Perspective (Hospital) and BIS would apprise about the status of Standards on Medical Textiles.
3:30- 3:45 pm	Tea/Coffee Break
3:45- 5:15 pm	Technical Session – III Standards for Increasing Productivity & Efficiency. The session would cover Standards on Geotextiles and Agro textiles, User Perspective (NHAI and National Institute for Research on Jute & Allied Fibre Technology) and BIS would apprise about the status of standards on Geo textiles and Agro textiles.

Knowledge Partners

For Participation, Please contact:

Nisha Goel - Senior Assistant Director
Manufacturing Division
Federation House, Tansen Marg, New Delhi 110 001
T: +91-11-23487450 (D) F: +91-11-2372 1504 Email: nisha.goel@ficci.com