

Workshop on The European Patent System and EPO Examination Practice in the field of Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology & Commercialisation of IP

5th October, 2015

Hotel Hilton, Mumbai International Airport,
Mumbai

9th October, 2015

Hotel Le Meridien,
Bangalore

- The Indian Pharmaceutical, Biotechnology and Chemical Industries
- IP heads, managers and practitioners
- In-house legal counsel
- IP attorneys
- Other groups interested in filing patents in Europe

- Overview of the European Patent Office and the European Patent System
- Procedures at the EPO from Filing to Appeal, including the EPO's role and services in the PCT
- Role of EBTC in facilitating technology transfer between Europe and India
- Patentability criteria in the field of chemistry with special emphasis on pharmaceutical chemistry and biotechnology
- Exceptions to patentability in the fields of Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology
- How to search and identify technologies for technology transfer using Espacenet and GPI
- Capacity building on commercialisation aspect of IP

Registration
open

For Registration, please contact:

Mr. Dipankar Barkakati
dipankar.barkakati@ficci.com
Ph: +91-11-23487368/9560052173)

Ms. Vedika Sidhu
vedika.sidhu@ficci.com
Ph +91-11-23487477