ALL INDIA ORGANISATION OF EMPLOYERS

National Award for Outstanding Industrial Relations 2016-17

National Award for Outstanding Industrial Relations (2016-17)

The All India Organization of Employers' (AIOE) is an allied body of FICCI, setup in the year 1932. It has been catering to a myriad of issues pertaining to labour & employment in enterprises to foster amicable industrial relations, built on mutual understanding, respect and commonality of interest between employers and workers. For the past 8 decades, it has contributed towards the growth and development of industries through unceasing efforts and patronization of various techniques in the form of collective bargaining, negotiations, social dialogue between the Government, Industry and Trade Unions.

It celebrated its golden Jubilee in 1983 and instituted an “Award for Outstanding Industrial Relations”. (A plaque with a citation presented by the Hon'ble Minister of Labour and Employment at the Annual General Meeting of AIOE held every year).

This award is given to industries for adopting innovative methods to foster lasting harmonious Industrial Relations in their establishment. It takes into consideration the negotiation mechanisms adopted, grievances settlement machinery, reduction in number of conflicts and man-days lost. It also takes into account various welfare measures in operation directed to both professional and personal development of the employees and all motivational measures taken to boost the morale and confidence of the employees leading to enhanced productivity and maintaining conducive Industrial Relation environment within the establishment.

This award aims to recognize industries with fine track records and standards with a view to be the trail blazer to herald an era of industrial peace and prosperity.
