Discussion with Controlling Authorities on Effective Enforcement of PSAR Act, 2005

BACKGROUND

Since the enactment of PSAR Act, 2005, adequate enforcement of guidelines have been laid down by MHA and states/UTs, which are administered by State Controlling Authorities.

ISSUE AT HAND

The eco-system is fast moving from enforcement alone to 'improvement' of the sector as a whole. Deeper understanding and collaboration between PSAR Controlling Authorities and PSAs has set rolling a series of changes in recent years that will impact the quality of service, compliance and working environment in the sector.

TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

The panel will try to explore best practices as well as continuing challenges that regulators have, vis-a-vis the pain points of industry.
